

CHICAGO FIRE TOUR

CHICAGO FIRE - MAIN OFFICES

1 N. Dearborn Street, Chicago

The Chicago Fire maintains their main offices here in this building.

PERFORMANCE CENTER - TRAINING FACILITY

S. Loomis Street and 14th Street, Chicago

This is the site where the Chicago Fire are building their Performance Center, which will become their training and rehab facility.

SOLDIER FIELD (1997-2006 & 2020- present) - STADIUM

1410 Special Olympics Drive, Chicago

The Chicago Fire started playing here for almost a decade when they first started out in the MLS. They moved to Toyota Park for over a decade, then moved back into Soldier Field during the 2020 season. Holds 61,500 spectators.

TOYOTA PARK (2007-2019) - STADIUM

7000 S. Harlem Avenue, Bridgeview

The site of the current Seat Geek Stadium, where the Chicago Fire once played. This stadium was built, in part, for the Fire to use. It has also hosted numerous concerts and other Soccer teams play here. Holds 20,000 for soccer, 28,000 for concerts.

CARDINAL STADIUM (2002-2004) - SITE

North Central College, Naperville

The site of the current Benedetti-Wehrli Stadium, used by North Central College in Naperville. The Chicago Fire played here when Soldier Field was being renovated 2002-2004. Holds 5500 spectators.