

MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENTS – CIVIL WAR TOUR

ANDREW O. APPLE (1845-1890) - GRAVE

Third Battle of Petersburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on April 2, 1865, at Petersburg, VA. Corporal Apple displayed conspicuous gallantry as color bearer in the assault on Fort Gregg. He was part of Company I, 12th West Virginia Infantry Regiment, US Army.

[Bluff City Cemetery, Elgin - Section 4, Lot 166 - 42°01'06.0"N 88°15'16.6"W]

DAVID AYRES (1841-1916) - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Sergeant Ayres displayed gallantry while storming defenses at Vicksburg as part of a volunteer forlorn hope unit. He was part of Company A, 57th Ohio Infantry Regiment, US Army.

[Oak Woods Cemetery, Chicago - Section F, Division 7, Lot 303 - 41°46'22.5"N 87°36'18.2"W]

WILLIAM PERKINS BLACK (1842-1916) - GRAVE

Battle of Pea Ridge - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on March 7, 1862, near Elkhorn Tavern, AR. Captain Black single handedly confronted the enemy and checked their advance. He was part of Company K, 37th Illinois Infantry Regiment, US Army.

[Graceland Cemetery, Chicago - Section EF, Lot 342 - 41°57'32.8"N 87°39'40.4"W]

JOHN CREED (1819-1872) - GRAVE

Battle of Fisher's Hill - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on September 22, 1864, near Strasburg, VA. Private Creed displayed extraordinary heroism while capturing the enemies flag. He was part of Company D, 23rd Illinois Infantry Regiment, US Army.

[Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Evanston - Section D, Block 12 - 42°01'26.3"N 87°40'27.5"W]

MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENTS – CIVIL WAR TOUR

JAMES DUNNE (1840-1915) - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Corporal Dunne helped carry a cannon, by hand, up into the embrasure of the enemy's defensive works. He was part of the Chicago Mercantile Battery, Illinois Light Artillery, US Army.

[Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Evanston - Section Y, Lot 16 - 42°01'29.0"N 87°40'08.7"W]

JAMES HENRY (1833-1911) - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Sergeant Henry displayed gallantry while storming defenses at Vicksburg as part of a volunteer forlorn hope unit. He was part of Company B, 113th Illinois Infantry Regiment, US Army.

[Oak Hill Cemetery, Geneva - Block G, Lot 40, Space 1 - 41°53'43.1"N 88°17'48.1"W]

THEODORE HYATT (1830-1900) - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. First Sergeant Hyatt displayed gallantry while storming defenses at Vicksburg as part of a volunteer forlorn hope unit. He was part of Company D, 127th Illinois Infantry Regiment, US Army.

Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery, Elwood - Section 1, Site 1613 - 41°23'17.1"N 88°07'37.2"W]

THOMAS H. JORDAN (1840-1930) - GRAVE

Battle of Mobile Bay - Navy Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on August 5, 1864, on Mobile Bay, AL. Quartermaster Jordan performed with skill and courage while helping the USS Oneida past enemy forts. He was on board the USS Galena, serving in the US Navy.

[Holy Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Chicago - 41°41'10.1"N 87°41'31.0"W]

MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENTS – CIVIL WAR TOUR

GEORGE KRETSINGER (1844-1906) - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Private Kretsinger helped carry a cannon, by hand, up into the embrasure of the enemy's defensive works. He was part of the Chicago Mercantile Battery, Illinois Light Artillery, US Army.

[Rosehill Cemetery and Mausoleum, Chicago - Section C - 41°59'10.5"N 87°40'39.4"W]

PATRICK MCGUIRE (1840-1898) - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Private McGuire helped carry a cannon, by hand, up into the embrasure of the enemy's defensive works. He was part of the Chicago Mercantile Battery, Illinois Light Artillery, US Army.

[Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Evanston - Section Y, Block 15, Lot 1 - 42°01'30.0"N 87°40'10.2"W]

AUGUSTUS MERRILL (1843-1895) - GRAVE

Petersburg Campaign - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on April 2, 1865, at Petersburg, VA. Captain Merrill, with 6 men, captured 69 Confederate soldiers and recaptured Union soldiers, held by the enemy. He was part of Company B, 1st Maine Veteran Infantry Regiment, Us Army.

[Graceland Cemetery, Chicago - Block 20, Grave 233 - 41°57'38.2"N 87°39'27.3"W]

HUGH MOLLOY (1841-1922) - GRAVE

Louisiana - Navy Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on March, 1864, near Harrisonburg, LA. Seaman Molloy performed with heroism and bravery while manning an important position for the ship's artillery. He was on board the USS Hindman, serving in the US Navy.

[Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Evanston - Section M, Block 41, Lot 4 - 42°01'34.7"N 87°40'38.0"W]

MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENTS – CIVIL WAR TOUR

PETER O'BRIEN - GRAVE

Battle of Waynesboro, VA - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on March 2, 1865, near Waynesboro, VA. Private O'Brien captured a flag and a Confederate Officer with his horse and equipment during the Battle. He was part of Company A, 1st New York (Lincoln) Cavalry, US Army.

[Rosehill Cemetery and Mausoleum, Chicago - Section H, Lot 47, Grave 46841 - 41°59'09.2"N 87°40'42.3"W]

TIMOTHY O'CONNOR (1840-1893) - GRAVE

First Battle of Deep Bottom, VA - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on July 28, 1864, near Malvern, VA. Private O'Connor captured the Confederate flag of the 18th North Carolina Infantry. He was part of Company E, 1st US Cavalry, US Army.

[Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Evanston (?) - 42.024998759186545, - 87.67357343757978]

WILLIAM HENRY POWELL (1825-1904) - GRAVE

Sinking Creek Raid - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on November 26, 1862, at Sinking Creek, VA. Major Powell led 22 men, who attacked and captured an entire Confederate camp of soldier, taking over 100 prisoners, without the loss of any men. He was part of 2nd West Virginia Cavalry, US Army.

[Graceland Cemetery, Chicago - Section 23, Lot 284 - 41°57'38.4"N 87°39'45.9"W]

WESLEY JAMES POWERS (1845-1902) - GRAVE

Georgia Operations - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on April 3, 1865, on the Oostanaula River, GA. Corporal Powers voluntarily swam a river under heavy fire to secure and retrieved a ferryboat, used for Union troops to cross the river. He was part of Company F, 147th Illinois Infantry regiment, US Army.

[North Cemetery, St. Charles - Section F, Lot 15 - 41°41'17.9"N 87°45'48.0"W]

MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENTS – CIVIL WAR TOUR

LOUIS JEANOTTELLE SACRISTE (1843-1904) - GRAVE

Battle of Auburn, VA - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on October 14, 1863, at Chancellorsville, VA. First Lieutenant Sacriste saved from capture a gun from the 5th Maine Battery and also delivered orders which resulted in saving from destruction numerous Union soldiers. He was part of Company D, 116th Pennsylvania Infantry Regiment, US Army.

[Mount Carmel Catholic Cemetery, Hillside - Section D, Block 5, Lot NS8, Grave 1 - 41°52'05.5"N 87°54'28.5"W]

WILLIAM G. STEPHENS - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Private Stephens helped carry a cannon, by hand, up into the embrasure of the enemy's defensive works. He was part of the Chicago Mercantile Battery, Illinois Light Artillery, US Army.

[Rosehill Cemetery and Mausoleums, Chicago - Section I, Lot 106 - 41°59'08.5"N 87°40'44.2"W]

WILLIAM TOOMER - GRAVE

Battle of Vicksburg - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 22, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Sergeant Toomer displayed gallantry while storming defenses at Vicksburg as part of a volunteer forlorn hope unit. He was part of Company G, 127th Illinois Infantry Regiment, US Army.

[Graceland Cemetery, Chicago - Block C, Lot 808 - 41°57'24.5"N 87°39'33.5"W]