

MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENTS-OTHER TOUR

JAMES BELL (1845-1901) - GRAVE

Indian Wars - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on July 9, 1876, at Big Horn, Montana. Private Bell delivered messages to General Crook at the imminent risk of life. He was part of Company E, 7th US Infantry, US Army.

[Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Chicago - Block C, Lot 808 - 41°41'15.7"N 87°41'31.2"W]

RICHARD HEARTERY (1847-1912) - GRAVE

Indian Campaigns - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on August 30, 1881, at Cibicu, AZ. Private Heartery performed bravely in action. He was part of Company D, 6th US Cavalry, US Army.

[Mount Carmel Catholic Cemetery, Hillside - 41°51'55.4"N 87°54'37.1"W]

JOHN HENRY HELMS (1874-1919) - GRAVE

Interim 1899-1910 - Navy Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on January 10, 1901, at Montevideo, Uruguay. Sergeant Helms rescued the ship's cook from drowning. He was on board the USS Chicago serving in the US Marines.

[Mound Grove Cemetery, Kankakee - Section 19, Lot 59 - 41°07'58.4"N 87°51'08.3"W]

WILLIAM MEYER (1863-1926) - GRAVE

Spanish-American War - Navy Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on May 11, 1898, at the Battle of Cienfuegos, Cuba. Carpenter's Mate Third Class Meyer displayed extraordinary bravery under heavy fire while cutting communication cables. He was aboard the USS Nashville, serving with the US Navy.

[Forest Home Cemetery, Forest Park- Section 49, Lot 299 - 41°52'02.3"N 87°49'49.1"W]

MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENTS-OTHER TOUR

SAMUEL F. ROGERS (1834-1905) - GRAVE

Korean Expedition of 1871 - Navy Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on June 11, 1871, at the Battle of Ganghwa, Korea. Quartermaster Rogers fought valiantly beside his mortally wounded commanding officer, Lt. McKee, during the capture of the Korean Forts. He was aboard the USS Colorado serving in the US Navy.

[Forest Home Cemetery, Forest Park - Section CL, Plot 1611 -41°52'10.9"N 87°49'44.4"W]

JAMES CURTIS WATSON (1842-1890) - GRAVE

Indian Wars - Army Medal of Honor

Awarded for his actions on July 12, 1870, at the Battle of Little Washita River in Texas. Corporal Watson performed with gallant bravery. He was part of Company L, 6th US Cavalry, US Army.

[Rosehill Cemetery and Mausoleum, Chicago - Section 6, Row 28, Grave18 - 41°59'25.2"N 87°40'45.2"W]